Lincoln County Fairgrounds
Sylvan Grove, KS
(north end of the baseball field)

Post Rock District 4-H Shooting Sports will be hosting a shooting sports match for archery. This match is a state qualifier. Kansas 4-H members actively enrolled in the project and discipline are eligible, if they are 9-18 years old before January 1 of the current year. 9 is the minimum age to participate at a Kansas 4-H state match. All levels of shooters are welcome!

A fun shoot is scheduled as part of the Lincoln County Fair in the morning. Concessions are available at the fair. Find Lincoln County Fair information at www.postrock.ksu.edu.

This is a FITA state qualifying match. Juniors (9-13 yrs. old 4-H age) will shoot 12 arrows at 30 meters and 12 arrows at 20 meters. Seniors (14 -18 yrs. old 4-H age) will shoot 12 arrows at 40 meters and 12 arrows at 30 meters. To qualify for the Kansas 4-H State Match in archery the minimum individual scores are:

- Recurve - 100 points of a possible 240;
- Olympic - 140 points of a possible 240;
- Bow Hunter/Compound - 180 points of a possible 240; and
- Open/Compound - 200 points of a possible 240.

Registration form must be completed before participation will be allowed. Registration fee is $10 per participant due at the event. Make check payable to Jewell County 4-H Council. Registration form is preferred to be received via mail or email by July 13. The qualifying match check-in will begin at 10:30AM, and the match will begin at 11:00AM. Each county needs to verify their shooters' information for accuracy at check-in. There are no awards beyond qualifying for state match.
