

ENGAGE. EXPLORE. DISCOVER.

Youth Enrichment Offerings for the Classroom

K-State Extension Post Rock District offers youth enrichment programs that bring research-based learning to life through hands-on activities and interactive discussions. Our staff is available to support teachers and communities with meaningful, experiential learning opportunities for school-age youth across Jewell, Lincoln, Mitchell, Osborne, and Smith Counties. For more information or to schedule an experience, contact any of the agents below.

Blaire Todd, Livestock Production Agent

- The Remarkable Ruminant (5-8 Grade)
- Good Feeds Program (Elementary)

BLAIRET@KSU.EDU | 785-738-3597

Cassie Thiessen, Horticulture Agent

- Pollinator Power (4-5 Grade)
- Gardening in a Glove (K-2 Grade)
- Insect Olympics (2-5 Grade)

CTHIESSEN@KSU.EDU | 785-738-3597

Jamie Rathbun, Family and Community Wellness Agent

- Bread in a Bag (4-6 Grade)
- High-Speed Handwashing (K-3 Grade)
- Gray for a Day (6-12 Grade)

JRATHBUN@KSU.EDU | 785-346-2521

Jenilee Godsey, 4-H Youth Development Agent

- Farm-2-Table (4-6 Grade)
- Seeing Yourself in the Future (3-12 Grade)
- Spark Studio (Elementary)

JENILEEM@KSU.EDU | 785-524-4432

Nora Rhoades, District Director

- Too Good (Upper Elementary/Junior High)
- Level Up! (Junior High/High School)

NRHOADES@KSU.EDU | 785-378-3174

To learn more about these great enrichment options or explore additional opportunities, visit our website at: <https://www.postrock.k-state.edu/>.

KANSAS STATE UNIVERSITY

Extension
Post Rock District

Kansas State University is an equal opportunity provider and employer.