

Down on the Farm

A program created to support professionals who work with farmers and ranchers by equipping them with tools to recognize and respond to signs of mental stress.

September 16, 2025

9:00 am - 12:00 pm

Beloit Methodist Church

Fellowship Hall

801 N. Bell St

How to Register:

Scan the Code
with your phone to register!

Or Contact Blaire Todd,
Livestock Production Agent
at blairet@ksu.edu &
785-738-3597

Free Registration - Lunch
will be provided!

» Come to learn how to recognize the signs of mental and emotional distress, local and regional resources, how and why to take care of your own emotional and mental health, and much more!

» Hear from Agencies such as Post Rock Extension District, Mitchell County Hospital Health Systems, and Beloit Police Department.

Who should attend? Anyone who interacts with farmers on a regular basis, including county, state and federal agency staff, veterinarians, bankers, etc.

K-STATE
Research and Extension
Post Rock District

MCHHS
MITCHELL COUNTY HOSPITAL
HEALTH SYSTEMS

This program is a partnership between Post Rock Extension District, Beloit FFA, Mitchell County Conservation District, and Mitchell County Hospital Health Systems.

K-State Research and Extension is committed to providing equal opportunity for participation in all programs, services and activities. Program information may be available in languages other than English. Language access requests and reasonable accommodations for persons with disabilities, including alternative means for communication (e.g., Braille, large print, audio tape, and American Sign Language), may be requested by contacting the event contact, Blaire Todd, four weeks prior to the start of the event (8/19/25) at 785-738-3597 or blairet@ksu.edu. Requests received after this date will be honored when it is feasible to do so. Language access services, such as interpretation or translation of vital information will be provided free of charge to limited English proficient individuals upon request.

Kansas State University Agricultural Experiment Station and Cooperative Extension Service K-State Research and Extension is an equal opportunity provider and employer.